Synonyms on “Life”

A way to study the subject on “Life” is to look up all the attributes and qualities that one can think of about ‘life.’

Think about ‘what Life is,’

and ‘what Life does,’ and

‘what Life frees me from.’

Here is my list, but I always am working each week to add to it. I try to affirm and acknowledge that these qualities are a part of my natural being. I reflect Life because God IS Life. The kingdom of Life is within me.

Sample of a Treatment with Life

(Sample of a)

Treatment using the synonym of LIFE along with the definition of God:

God is incorporeal, supreme, divine, infinite eternal, omnipotent, omnipresent, omniscient, all-action, all-seeing, all-knowing, all-wise, all loving Life.

Because Life is incorporeal:

(without matter or a material body, without limitation or finiteness, boundless, there is nothing outside of itself)

- I have never been born into matter
- I cannot die out of matter
- an idea doesn't live in matter on any level
- matter is absolutely nothing, no part of me or any spiritual idea
- there is no pain or pleasure in matter
- Life is uninterrupted, eternal, consistent, whole, complete

Because Life is supreme:

(It can't be limited by possessing more power or authority than something else. There is no comparison, nothing apart from it to compare to.

It is the greatest, all inclusive

The final authority over all, the author of all from which all proceeds)

- I am not subject to any other power or presence or cause
- I cannot decay or deteriorate or die
- Life is supreme, over all, in all and through all, there is nothing present but Life

Because Life is divine:

(holy, pure, without blemish, has not the slightest extraneous element present, absolute oneness, divine)

- I am not a mortal, made from a carnal body, from sperm and egg
- As God's reflection, I am holy, divine in nature

Because Life is infinite:

- without boundary finiteness or end
- without limitation of any kind
- without beginning and without end
- I am not limited in any way: not by age, experience, body, talent
- I am not bound up or imperfect or broken
- I can never be incomplete or have a partial experience of good
- I reflect immeasurable good, infinite capacity, infinite ability and infinite opportunity

Because Life is eternal

(without beginning or end of existence, everlasting; endless; immortal; perpetual; ceaseless; continued without intermission; unchangeable)

- I can never die
- I can never be destroyed, diminished, be impermanent, decay
- My life is a reflection of God's eternal Life, so my life never depends on matter or fluctuating matter conditions

Because Life is omnipotent

- I reflect that infinite all-power
- There is no opposing power, no limited capacity, strength, energy, ability
- I reflect the power that heals, saves, redeems, floods the universe with Love

Because Life is omnipresent

- I can feel God's presence and Love every moment
- I never need to depend on anything besides God
- I am never separate from God, infinite good
- Matter is never present, it never has a condition, it never can lie be afraid, doubt, be discouraged
- There can never be another mind to influence me, talk to me, make me afraid
- God is the only presence, here, now, and always

Because Life is omniscient

- I can never think a thought God does not give me
- I can never know anything that doesn't come from God
- Life is the only consciousness, and I reflect it all
- I can never know any lie, any belief, any misconception, any claim or presentment because Life does not know it

Because Life is all-action

- The only growing, progressive ideas come from God, from the Holy Ghost
- There is no other abnormal growth, no cell division, no cancer
- Life is the only movement, the only strength, influence, communication
- I reflect that infinite perfect activity in everything I do

Because Life is all-seeing

- Life expresses itself through perfect vision, perfect sight and insight
- Life discerns, perceives, understands, therefore, I discern, perceive and understand
- Life sees only His own perfect idea and nothing else
- There is nothing else to see or know or perceive but what infinite Life includes

Because Life is all-knowing

- Life's reflection knows and understands and comprehends
- I am conscious only of Life

Because Life is all-wise

- I am intelligent and perceptive
- I do know what I need to know to heal any claim or presentment
- There is no other knowledge, no doctor or dentist's verdict, no lie or misconception
- Life is wisdom, truth, understanding, and by reflection --I have it all

Because Life is all-loving

- I am cherished, valued, cared for, filled up full with infinite Love
- I am filled up full so that I can pour Love on all who come into the realm of my consciousness
- Love is Life and fills all space, is all power
- There is no hatred, no resentment, no jealousy, no envy
- Nothing exists but infinite Life and Love
